An efficient method for figuring out a value is to send out a survey to your current customers. If these clients have already bought an e book from you, ask for his or her opinion in terms of price. Do that by making a sales page for the new e book, but don't embrace a worth on that page. Instead, add plenty of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to assist you in assigning a value to your ebook.

Another strategy is to test out prices by creating a variety of duplicate gross sales pages with different prices on each page. Be certain that your sales copy is strictly the same on every page, and consists of your selling-handle sentence. Then work out for each web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your site and gross sales of your book. This will let you know what your optimum price is.
